

✍️ Trace the way Jesus went
when he met and healed Bartimaeus,
and then went on to Jerusalem.

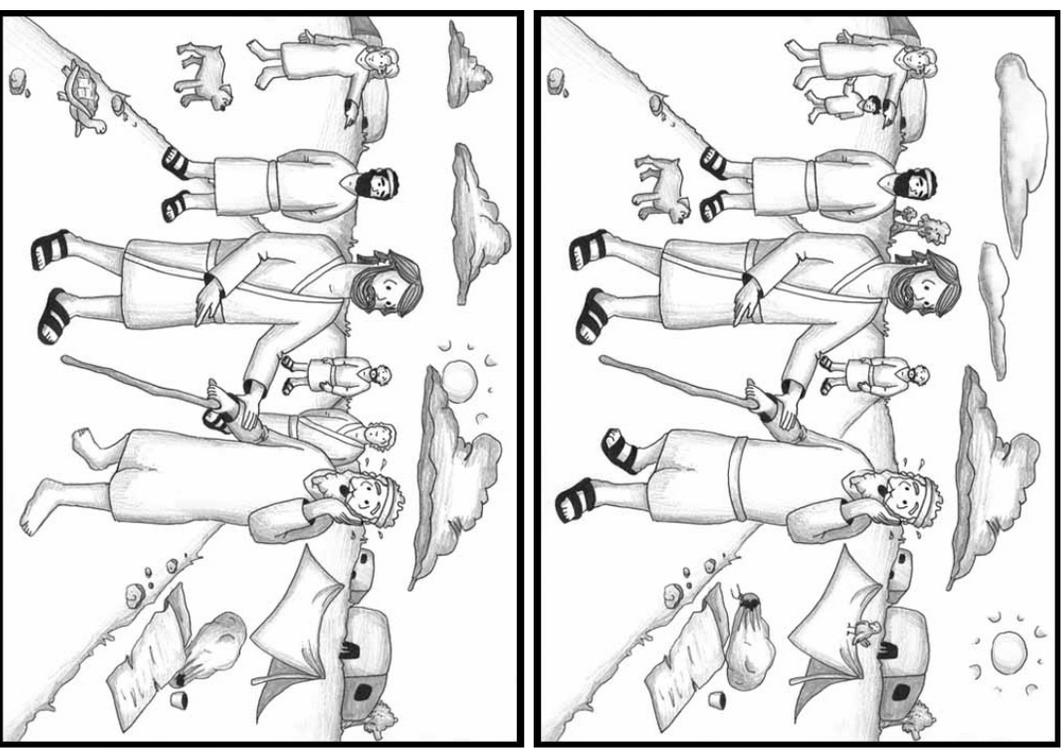

Children's Bulletin

Oct. 24, 2021 Mk. 10:46-52 Ages 7-12

Jesus heals blind Bartimaeus.

Find 10 differences between these pictures.

Mixed Up Story

Read the story of blind Bartimaeus in Mark 10:46-52.

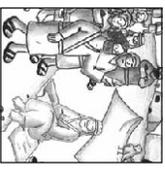

Number the paragraphs below to put them in the right order. As you read the story in the right order, write the underlined letters in the blanks at the bottom to complete the sentence about Bartimaeus.

When Bartimaeus heard from the crowd that it was Jesus who was passing by, he shouted, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me." When the people around him told him to be quiet, he shouted more than ever: "Jesus son of David, have mercy on me!"

"You may go on your way," said Jesus, "Your faith has made you well." At once Bartimaeus could see! And he followed Jesus down the road.

They came to Jericho. As Jesus left the city with his disciples and a great crowd of people, he passed a blind man named Bartimaeus, who sat by the roadside begging.

Jesus stopped and asked for Bartimaeus. So they told him to cheer up because Jesus was calling for him. Bartimaeus hurried to Jesus. "What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked. "Lord, I want to be able to see," said Bartimaeus.

Bartimaeus had _____ and he _____ Jesus.

Bartimaeus could not see. Jesus healed him.

What can you see?

Color the spaces with circles darker.
 Color the spaces with squares lighter.

